

AGREEMENT WITH THE NATIONAL SPORTS FEDERATION
AS AN ORGANISER OF INTERNATIONAL CROSSBOW COMPETITIONS

between

INTERNATIONAL CROSSBOW SHOOTING UNION

(hereinafter referred to as the “IAU”)

and

.....

(hereinafter referred to as the “Organiser”) due to

World Championship (European Championship, World Cup, international competition)

Recitals

The IAU General Assembly, held in (place) on (date),

Or EC IAU held in (place) on (date), decided to entrust the holding of the World Championship (European Championship) (hereinafter “the Championship”) on20... to the Federation in accordance with Article 2b and 18 of the IAU Statutes.

The Parties, the organising National Federation represented by, hereinafter referred to as the “Organiser”, and the IAU Executive Committee represented by the President Pero Stojnić, hereinafter referred to as the “IAU”, have agreed as follows:

Introductory provisions

Article 1

(1) Based on the application submitted and the decision made by the IAU General Assembly or EC IAU, it was decided to hold the Championship.

in

in the period from to.....

(2) The purpose of this Agreement is to confirm the appointment of the Organiser as the host country of the Championship, as well as to determine the duties and responsibilities of the parties, both the IAU and the Organiser and its Organising Committee for holding the Championship.

List of regulatory documents

Article 2

The IAU shall confirm the appointment of the above Organiser as the Organiser of the Championship (year), which is to be held in (place and country), as well as shall fulfil all the duties and obligations to hold the Championship, provided for by the IAU Rules.

The Organiser of the Championship shall comply with all the provisions of the IAU Statutes and the Rules of the sport type.

Article 3

(1) The IAU and the Organiser agree that both parties will make every effort to create the best conditions for the athletes to display their abilities in conditions of fair competition during the Championship and to put crossbow shooting in the most favourable light for the IAU member federations, viewers and media.

(2) The organiser of the Championship hereby assumes all the obligations to prepare, host, hold and organise the Championship and shall comply with all the requirements set forth herein.

Article 4

(1) The Organiser shall accept its appointment as the Organiser of the Championship and confirm that it understands and will fulfill the duties and obligations entrusted by the Rules for Crossbow Shooting.

- (2) The Organiser will establish an Organising Committee and guarantees that the Organising Committee will fulfill all the duties assigned to it.
- (3) The Organiser shall be liable for managing and holding the Championship via the Organising Committee.
- (4) The Organising Committee includes a management team, rank-and-file employees, national referees and volunteers who jointly plan, prepare all the aspects and hold the Championship under the IAU supervision.

Article 5

The Organiser of the Championship shall comply with all the provisions of the IAU Statutes and the Rules of the sport, as well as with the conditions for organising the Championship, presented in the bid.

Participation

Article 6

The Organiser shall assume the responsibility for inviting all the National Member Federations of the IAU, as well as for assisting all the participants and officials in obtaining visas to enter the country.

Participation fee

Article 7

- (1) The Participants shall pay to the Organiser, upon its request, participation fees for the participation in the Championship in accordance with the decision of the IAU Executive Committee.
- (2) A fee of EUR 120 – World and Continental Championships, EUR 70 – World Cup Field, EUR 50 – World Cup Match shall be paid for the participation of each athlete in each competition. The Organiser shall retain the above amounts and transfer EUR 20 to the IAU's account for the participation of each athlete in the competitions on each of the disciplines within thirty (30) days after the end of the Championship.

Officials

Article 8

- (1) The IAU Executive Committee shall introduce a candidate of the IAU Technical Delegate to the Organiser.
- (2) The IAU Technical Delegate shall be responsible for inspection of the shooting ranges and other facilities in order to confirm their compliance with the IAU standards and suitability for the Championship. The IAU Technical Delegate shall coordinate his work with the Organiser before and during the Championship.
- (3) In order to fulfil his duties, the Technical Delegate must be invited at the expense of the Organiser to the venue of the Championship for the first time 4-6 months before the Championship, for the second time – not later than three (3) days before the official training.

Article 9

(1) The Organising Committee of the Championship shall appoint judges, the Anti-Doping Committee Officer and the Press Officer and agree the candidates with the IAU Executive Committee.

(2) The Organiser shall assist IAU Judges, the Anti-Doping Committee Officer and the Press Officer who will serve the Championship and whose costs, including the local expenses (hotel accommodation, meals, local transport) and transportation costs, shall be covered by the Organiser.

Sports grounds: requirements for the sports infrastructure

Article 10

(1) The Organiser shall prepare the shooting ranges, equipment installed and other sports infrastructure facilities, which shall meet the relevant requirements.

(2) The Championship is a crossbow championship, which is held under the IAU supervision in accordance with the IAU Rules.

Key personnel

Article 11

(1) The Organiser shall train judges, officials, technical and administrative personnel before the Championship in accordance with the IAU Technical Rules.

(2) The Organiser shall ensure optimal working conditions for the officials responsible for the Championship, judges, medical personnel and doping control personnel, as well as for representatives of the media in accordance with the established rules and standards and the needs of certain bodies and services.

Procedure of the competitions

Article 12

(1) The Preliminary and Final Programs of the Championship shall be prepared by the Organiser and submitted to the EC IAU at first and after confirmation to the IAU WEB page and IAU Member Federations.

(2) The Organiser shall develop a procedure and rules for the conduct of competitions in accordance with the IAU Rules.

Requirements for the transport and hotels, standards, infrastructure

Article 13

(1) The Organiser shall take special care in choosing the accommodation, meal and transportation option for the participants, which must comply with generally accepted international standards for hotel, catering and transportation services, and ensure safety of the participants, employees, IAU official representatives and guests of the Championship.

(2) The Organiser shall provide free transportation to all delegations from the competition venues to the hotel and from the hotel to the shooting ranges.

(3) The Organiser may also be required to pay any expenses on the transfer for the participants and officials from/to the airport if such decision is approved by the IAU Executive Committee.

Article 14

(1) The accommodation options suggested by the Organiser must be approved by the participating National Federations (however, this requirement is not mandatory).

The hotels that host the participating National Federations and the IAU Officials must comply with international standards and should be located as close as possible to the shooting ranges. The organizer must offer 3 to 4 different quality standards for hotel accommodation, which is adequate for the prices.

(2) The Organiser shall not organise a transfer to/from a hotel not provided for in the program.

Anti-doping control

Article 15

Anti-doping control is conducted on the last day of the Championship accordance with the EC IAU decision for World and Continental championships and World Cups: Field 3 samples (on World Cups 2 samples) and Match 2 samples all by drawing of the winners by the disciplines.

All the costs associated with the organisation of anti-doping control during the Championship shall be paid by the Organiser

Advertising events and interaction with media during the EKCC Championship

Article 16

(1) The Organiser shall develop the concept and prepare proposals and initial information for the Championship promotion campaigns in order to attract media attention to the competitions.

(2) The rights to cover all the Championships in the media, the rights to broadcasting them and advertising belong to the IAU.

(3) In order to assist the Organiser, some of these rights may be granted to the IAU National Member Federation of the host country.

(4) It is necessary to provide maximum assistance to employees of the press, radio and television in order to ensure free circulation of public information for media representatives.

(5) The Organiser must agree with the national broadcasting company (or with local or commercial TV companies) that it will act during the Championship as the main TV company providing the live broadcast of the Championship on IAU websites, TV and radio broadcasting.

Obligations of the Organiser

Article 17

Within 30 days after the end of the Championship, the Organiser shall send a report on the championship and transfer the participation fees and other amounts stipulated by agreements to the IAU Secretariat.

The organizer must send by email the results and pictures (or links to the pictures) at the end of each day of the competition to the IAU Secretariat. At the end of the competition the Final Book of Results also must be sent by email to the IAU Secretariat. The Original Results Book signed by the Technical Delegate, the Jury Chairperson, the Competition Director, and the Organizer's Representative must be handed over to the Technical Delegate.

Refusal from holding the Championship

Article 18

The Organiser agrees that it has the right to refuse, in full or in part, from the performance of its obligations to hold the Championship only with the consent of the IAU Executive Committee. Unauthorized refusal entails a penalty and suspension of membership in the IAU, as well as a temporary ban on participation in the competitions held under the IAU supervision (until the decision of the IAU Executive Committee). The amount of the penalty shall be determined by the IAU Executive Committee after the proceedings for each case of refusal individually.

Governing law and jurisdiction

Article 19

- (1) This Agreement shall be governed and interpreted solely by the Swiss laws.
- (2) Any disputes under this Agreement, including on its conclusion, binding force, amendments and termination hereof, shall be submitted to the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Lausanne, Switzerland, and settled in accordance with the Court of Arbitration for Sport. The language of the proceedings shall be English.

Validity

Article 20

- (1) This Agreement shall enter into force upon its signature by the parties and remain in force until the final report on the results of the competition is submitted.
- (2) Upon the expiration of the above period, this Agreement shall automatically terminate without the right of either party to compensation, except for violation of its terms and conditions.

Amendments

Article 21

Amendments hereto shall have legal effect only if made in writing.

Number of identical copies

Article 22

This Agreement is made in two identical copies, one for each party.

Place:

Date:

On behalf of IAU

On behalf of the organising National Federation

Name:

Name:.....

Title:.....

Title:.....

Signature:.....

Signature:.....

Date, seal.

Date, seal.